coverstory Away from it all: Luxury getaway goes south in 'Leave the World Behind'

A family's stay at a luxurious vacation home is unexpectedly extended due to a mysterious apocalypse in the new thriller "Leave the World Behind," premiering Friday, Dec. 8, on Netflix.

Based on the bestselling 2020 novel of the same name by author Rumaan Alam, the adaptation stars Julia Roberts ("Ticket to Paradise," 2022) and Ethan Hawke ("Moon Knight") as married couple Amanda and Clay Sandford, whose family getaway to Long Island is steered far from the rest and relaxation they expected.

After putting off a much-needed break from their busy dayto-day city life, Amanda tells Clay in the official trailer for the film, "I figured if I made the reservation and packed our bags, it would eliminate most of the reasons to say no." Off they go to a sprawling home near the beach with their two children, teenager Årchie (Čharlie Evans, "Everything's Gonna Be Okay") and their youngest, Rose (Farrah Mackenzie, "United States of Al").

While Amanda and Clay watch on as their children enjoy the pool and they all begin to settle into their temporary home, the peace and quiet begins feeling eerie. The cable and internet are mysteriously out, but the Sandfords try to make the most of it by pulling out games to pass the time. A knock at the door in the dark of night puts them face to face with two strangers in formal wear.

Mahershala Ali ("Swan Song," 2021) is G.H. Scott, the owner of the home, he explains to the bewildered couple blocking his doorway. This fateful introduction deepens the uneasiness that's beginning to build, when Amanda says to G.H. like an accusation, "This is your house?" G.H., joined by his daughter Ruth (Myha'la, "Industry"), face down their guests until they are eventually let into their home.

Widespread blackouts led the Scotts to flee New York City for their Long Island residence, wanting to wait out the outage away from the panic of the city. Relegated to the basement in-law suite by a forcefully skeptical Amanda, the divide between the two families intensifies.

If Amanda is determined not to make any friends in the apocalypse, her efforts are matched only by gruff contractor Danny, portrayed by Kevin Bacon ("City On a Hill"). Holding his shotgun as a warning in the trailer, Danny sternly tells G.H., "I would do anything to protect my family. What you do is your business." A woman desperately clings to the passenger side door as Clay accelerates away, lost in this unfamiliar beach town, leaving the Sandford and Scott families no choice but to rely on each other for the time being.

All they know for certain is that a countrywide cyberattack has caused sweeping power outages along the East Coast. Confirmed with an unsettling "unrecognized emergency warning" blasting bright blue light from the beach home's flat-screen TV, G.H.'s hunch that the seemingly unrelated disasters are connected grows.

"Leave the World Behind" is written and directed by "Mr. Robot" creator Sam Esmail, who spoke with The Hollywood Reporter in October about adapting the novel shortly after it was published during the COVID-19 pandemic. Esmail shared, "It was a crazy time, those early days [of the pandemic], and when I read the book what really resonated for me was this idea that in a moment of crisis, just how easily we could forget our common humanity.

Alam executive produced the film with Tonia Davis ("Rustin," 2023), Daniel M. Stillman ("Eurovision Song Contest: The Story of Fire Saga," 2020), Nick Krishnamurthy and Barack and Michelle Obama ("We the People"). Esmail also shared what it's like to collaborate with the former president and first lady, saying, "They gave notes on everything from the disaster elements to the characters." The director added, "It's a highlight of my career that I got to work with the Obamas. They're some of the most brilliant minds on the planet and I'm really grateful for their involvement.'

Tilly Ramsay joins 'MasterChef' dad to judge junior holiday competition

You have to whisk it to risk it — and maybe add a little nutmeg for a taste of holiday cheer. Celebrity chef Gordon Ramsay welcomes both his family and yours to spend some time in the kitchen this holiday season, as the all-new "MasterChef Junior: Home for the Holidays" airs a two-part special, taking place Sunday and Monday, Dec. 10 and 11, on Fox.

"Gordon Ramsay welcomes nine young culinary contestants to cook up seasonal delights themed to Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, Lunar New Year and more," a recent news release from the network shared, continuing: "Judges Gordon Ramsay, his daughter Tilly Ramsay, Aarón Sánchez and Daphne Oz will crown a winner, who takes home the ultimate holiday gift: a $25,000 grand prize, a Viking Kitchen package and a one-of-a-kind 'MasterChef' snow globe trophy." In fact, each junior chef who competes will leave with a kitchen-related prize, including a second Viking Kitchen package for the runner-up.

Like its predecessor, "MasterChef Junior," this iteration will also feature young aspiring cooks — children aged eight to 13 — with each episode putting the heat on these talented junior chefs with a series of challenges. They'll compete in skills-based tests, boxes of mystery ingredients, team challenges and elimination rounds, including the "Pressure Test," in which losing team members must compete against each other to make an impressive dish within a limited time frame.

Once the competition is reduced to its strongest chefs, the remaining few must face off in a three-course cook-off, with all courses equally weighed by judges to determine an overall winner.

It's a big feat to face one Ramsay for chefs of all ages — let alone two. A world-renowned chef himself, Gordon Ramsay's daughter, Tilly, was previously a contestant on "Celebrity MasterChef Australia," proving that talent in the kitchen might just be genetic. The second-generation Ramsay is also set to join the cast as a judge of "MasterChef Junior's" upcoming ninth season, acting as a reminder of what young chefs can accomplish once they really get cooking.

Bubbling over with family fun and holiday cheer, this seasonal special is sure to give fans a taste of what's to come in "MasterChef Junior" Season 9. "MasterChef Junior: Home for the Holidays" airs as a two-night event, Dec. 10 and 11, on Fox.

playerprofile BY ROBERTO JOZEF LeBron James, Lakers head to Dallas to face the surging Mavs

The energy is high for another exciting night in the NBA as LeBron James and the Los Angeles Lakers gear up to tip off against a talented Dallas Mavericks squad Tuesday, Dec. 12, at the American Airlines Arena in Dallas, with the game broadcast live on TNT.

At 38 years of age, NBA legend LeBron James continues to defy expectations. Regarded as one of the top two best players of all time, the 2023-24 season has been another amazing one for King James, proving to doubters yet again that he is still a force to be reckoned with and is showing no signs of slowing down. This season, James boasts an impressive 24.3 points per game, 8.5 rebounds per game and 5.5 assists per game, while shooting for an impressive 56.7% from field goal range. But make no mistake, the matchup against the Mavericks will surely prove to be a challenging one.

Led by Slovenian-born all-star Luka Doncic, the Mavericks started the season on a four-game win streak with Doncic averaging 31.1 points per game, 7.8 rebounds and 7.9 assists (as of Nov. 15).

As far as team performance goes, the Lakers rank 28th in three-point percentage and 29th in three-pointers made through 10 games this season. While some of their off-season signings have been ruled out due to injury, overall the Lakers will need to look for other ways to find effective scoring from beyond the arch.

Meanwhile, for the Mavericks, perimeter shooting has been their strongest area this season, as they lead the league in three-point percentage, sitting at 39.4%, all while sitting in a top-three spot in the Western Conference. So, grab your popcorn and get ready to witness greatness as the Los Angeles Lakers visit the Dallas Mavericks for a Western Conference matchup, airing live on TNT Tuesday, Dec. 12.
