"The Floor" - Season 1 (Fox — Jan. 2. Series Premiere)

This brand-new quiz show, hosted by series producer Rob Lowe, sees 81 contestants face off in quiz duels on a giant LED floor divided into a hundred equal squares, each representing its own field of knowledge. The first challenger, selected at random, must choose one of their neighboring opponents to go head-tohead in an epic quiz duel in the opponent's category. The winner takes over the loser's square, before earning the chance to take on another competitor. The last contestant standing who gains full control over The Floor takes home a life-changing $250,000 cash prize.

coverstory 'Gettin' at 'er' one last time: 'Letterkenny' gifts fans final season

After nearly eight years, 12 seasons, 75 episodes and eight specials, Canadian premium network Crave's first-ever original series is calling it quits, bud. "Letterkenny," created by the series' leading star, Jared Keeso ("Elysium," 2013), has made the tough decision to pack up the Puppers following its 12th season, thus passing the torch to its hockey-driven spinoff series, Shoresy (also available on Hulu). Don't miss the dry double talk, loaded innuendo and small-town Canadian drama when "Letterkenny" premieres its final season Tuesday, Dec. 26, on Hulu.

Keeso's award-winning series was inspired by his own life growing up in the small town of Listowel, Ontario, and emerged from his own Twitter (now X) feed, titled "Listowel Problems." In a 2016 interview, the creator and actor told the Toronto Star, "What we do on 'Letterkenny' is we just take the portrait of small-town life and exaggerate and embellish the [expletive] out of it."

The fictional town of Letterkenny, whose inhabitants "belong to one of three groups: the hicks, the skids and the hockey players" (per Hulu), has become a staple TV visit for many households — even the country town of Listowel has seen a bit of tourism since the show began in 2016. Now adorned with 12 Canadian Screen Awards, "Letterkenny" prepares to take its final bow and leave the laughs up to its spinoff, "Shoresy," which also stars Keeso. Joining Keeso, who returns to his role as Wayne (and possibly in another cameo as Shoresy if fans are lucky), are fellow regulars Mylett as Katy, Nathan Dales ("Resident Evil: Welcome to Raccoon City," 2021) as Daryl and K. Trevor Wilson ("Mr. Viral," 2012) as Dan. Also likely to return (but still unconfirmed as of writing) are Andrew Herr ("Upload") as Jonesy, Evan Stern ("The Void," 2016) as Roald, Dylan Playfair ("Mr. Hockey: The Gordie Howe Story," 2013) as Reilly and Tyler Johnston ("The Odds," 2011) as Stewart. But as this is the series finale, it's hard to say which characters will return to bid farewell to viewers.

While "Letterkenny" typically takes a quick-witted approach to slow-paced life events, it seems the writers have a lot cooked up for the final season. According to the official Hulu news release, there will be lots of laughs in order as the local nightlife kicks into high gear.

"In Season 12, the small town contends with a comedy night at Modean's, a country music hit, the Degens' bad influence, a new nightclub, and an encore at the Ag Hall," the writeup reads. "And that's just for starters."

The final season of "Letterkenny" is, as usual, headed up by Keeso and his creative partner, Jacob Tierney ("Laurence Anyways," 2012), who also works on "Shorsey" both behind the scenes and on-screen (he stars as the show's more uppity recurring character, Glen, a character he has played in 42 episodes of the pair's flagship series, as of writing).

As for the decision to end the show after more than 80 installments, Keeso says, "I think we've done everything that we can do on that show."

"I'm always looking for something new and exciting to do with the characters, a new opportunity to develop them, to help the audience understand them just a little bit better," Keeso added in the Crave news release. "It gets tough around the 50 mark, and it gets really tough around the 70 mark. I guess I decided at the 80 mark that that was it.'

Tasty tailgate: Fieri and friends cook up football-ready eats in 'Guy's Ranch Kitchen'

Make room at the table: an all-new episode of "Guy's Ranch Kitchen" airs Saturday, Dec. 30, on Food Network.

Each episode, celebrity chef Guy Fieri ("Guy's Grocery Games") invites his friends and family — some of whom just so happen to be accomplished chefs — to his ranch kitchen, where together they share stories and prepare delicious dishes that prove perfect for watching football while partaking in a fun cook-off between friends.

Now airing its seventh season, "Guy's Ranch Kitchen" welcomes chefs Nyesha Arrington ("Next Level Chef"), Nate Appleman ("The Next Iron Chef"), Shota Nakajima ("Top Chef"), Jet Tila ("Kitchen Lab"), Jose Garces ("Iron Chef America"), Adam Sobel ("Chopped"), Lee Anne Wong ("Top Chef") and many others to meet at Guy's ranch and make some mouth-watering, multicultural eats.

So far this season, Fieri has: enjoyed an international Thanksgiving, celebrated with chorizo clam toast, cacio e pepe potato casserole and turkey porchetta with fennel apple salad; turned up the heat to fend off the cold, with mango hibiscus margaritas, spicy shrimp with pork Szechuan wontons, parmesan habanero crusted ribeye and chicken tamales with mole; and readied himself for a farm-to-table holiday, tasting pumpkin-tamarind soup with crispy curry leaves, Nana's lemon broccoli with toasted pine nuts and morel mushroom toasts.

In upcoming episodes, Fieri gets a "little taste of everything," says Food Network, as "chef Adam Sobel pours white peach and purple basil bellinis and treats Guy to his Tokyo-style hashbrowns and some strawberry coconut crème brûlée French toast."

Later on, Fieri welcomes "Tournament of Champions" competitor chef Mei Lin to craft fried mochi dumplings with pork and dried radish, opening his palate with a taste of okonomiyaki. To top the episode off, Food Network promises: "Chef Aarti Sequeira ["Aarti Party"] has Guy try savory tomato chaat pie and rolls up some rice and coconut crêpes with mango cardamom stuffing," and "Chef Joe Sasto ["Top Chef"] bets on 'nduja baked clams casino and crossing over cuisines with 'Chicago beef' birria tacos."

Fieri even welcomes family to the kitchen, as Guy Fieri's son, Hunter Fieri ("Guy's Hawaiian Eats"), pops in to "[please] pops with mezquila palomas before plating up prosciutto and mozzarella Neapolitan pizza and some charred cauliflower with chimichurri," Food Network claims, serving up some brunch favorites alongside chefs Tiffani Faison ("Beachside Brawl"), Joe Sasto ("Outchef'd") and Justin Sutherland ("Fast Foodies").

Sundays might be for football — but Saturdays are for good food and good friends. Favorites join their friend Fieri on "Guy's Ranch Kitchen," airing new episodes Saturdays on Food Network.

playerprofileBY ROBERTO JOZEFJalen Hurts and Eagles host theGiants for a Christmas Day matchup

Looking to continue a season of excellence and hoping to keep the Christmas spirits high, the Philadelphia Eagles get set to host struggling division rivals New York Giants Monday Dec. 25 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia with all the action broadcast live on Fox.

The last time Philadelphia faced New York in a regular season matchup, the Eagles walked away with a 22-16 victory (Jan. 8, 2023), in what was a key victory for the Eagles. Star quarterback Jalen Hurts led the way, helpng secure the number one spot in the NFC East throwing for 229 yards, all after being sidelined with a shoulder injury weeks prior.

Coming into the 2023 season fully healed, Jalen Hurts hasn't skipped a beat throwing for 557 yards and five touchdowns in November. This performance made the Eagles the first team in NFL history to start 10-1 or better in back-to-back seasons since the 2005-06 Indianapolis Colts. Having yet another MVP season, Hurts also made history by becoming the first quaterback ever to have 10 rushing touchdowns in three straight seasons.

Meanwhile for the Giants, it's been a season to forget as they rank last in the NFL in yards per game (258.7) and rank top 10 in turnover ratio with 12 interceptions. Adding salt to the wound, the Danial Jones injury woes have not made things easier after the Giants signed him to a four-year, $160 million deal in the off-season, only to see him tear his ACL in what turned out to be a season-ending injury in only Jones' fifth season.

After falling short to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in last years playoffs, the Philadelphia Eagles are hungry to get back into the Super Bowl after proving yet again this season they have what it takes. But first, they'll have to face a New York Giants team that will surely look to stop Hurts and the Eagles from finding any sort of comfort.

Full name: Jalen Alexander Hurts Birthdate: Aug. 7, 1998 (25) Birthplace: Houston, Texas, U.S. Height/weight: 6'1"/223 pounds Team(s): Philadelphia Eagles, #1 (2020-present) Honors and achievements: Pro Bowl (2022),

"The Brothers Sun" - Season 1 (Netflix — Jan. 4, Series Premiere)

When the head of a powerful Taiwanese triad is shot by a mysterious assassin, his eldest son, legendary killer Charles "Chairleg" Sun (Justin Chien) heads to Los Angeles to protect his mother, Eileen (Michelle Yeoh), and his naive younger brother, Bruce (Sam Song Li), who's been completely sheltered from the truth of his family until now. But as Taipei's deadliest societies and a new rising faction go head-tohead for dominance, the family must heal the wounds caused by their separation and figure out what brotherhood and family truly means before one of their enemies kills them all.

"Sanctuary: A Witch's Tale" (Sundance NOW/AMC+ — Jan. 4, Series Premiere) Set in a contemporary world where witchcraft is real, in the idyllic English town of Sanctuary, this drama series follows Sarah Fenn (Elaine Cassidy), Sanctuary's resident witch, on whom the town relies to solve their problems when conventional remedies have failed. When local teen rugby star, Dan Whithall, dies tragically in an apparent accident, his death exposes a terrifying undercurrent of suspicion and fear towards Sarah and her teenage daughter, Harper (Hazel Doupe). Dan's mother, Abigail (Amy de Bhrun), once Sarah's closest friend, launches a modern-day witch-hunt to get "justice" for her son, no matter the cost

A brand-new episode of this long-running docuseries explores the intersection of play and artistry, a space often powered by the magic of a child's imagination. Celebrating childhood, self-expression and a lifelong relationship with play, this latest installment features interviews with piñata artists, puppeteers and sculptors. The Season 15 premiere of "Craft in America" premieres Friday, Dec. 29, on PBS. Explore episodes and extras from the series by checking out: pbs.org/show/craft-in-america/

As the dawn of a new millennium approached, rumors spread that a bug would cause computers worldwide to reset, right as the year 1999 turned to 2000. This documentary unravels the mass hysteria that followed, changing the fabric of modern society for years to come. Travel through time, as "Time Bomb Y2K" (2023) makes its television debut, Saturday, Dec. 30, on HBO, with a full description of the documentary available to read at: dcdoxfest.com/films/time-bomb-y2k/
